ROOKIE OF THE YEAR - TOM MILANI - SYRACUSE BLAZERS

Tom Milani, graduate of the University of Minnesota at Duluth, was selected as Rookie of the Year by vote of the NAHL Coaches. Milani, playing with the regular season Champions, Syracuse Blazers, posted 121 points in 72 games, with 56 goals and 65 assists. His goal scoring performance surpassed Hank Taylor's previous rookie goal scoring record of 50 set in 1975-76. Milani was also a first team All-Star selection at right wing. Milani's team mate and Rookie Award runner-up, Bernie Johnston, gave Syracuse a "one-two" punch of 243 regular season first year points, with both shattering Taylor's first year record of 93 points.

GOALTENDER OF THE YEAR - LYNN ZIMMERMAN - ERIE BLADES

Lynn Zimmerman, first team All-Star selection, earned the Award for "Goaltender of the Year" in the NAHL by posting an impressive 3.38 goal against average. This Award is earned by the goaltender with the lowest goal against average while playing in a minimum of 1800 minutes (30 games). Zimmerman's impressive record, interrupted by a brief call-up to the Houston Aeros at mid-season, includes the following: Most Minutes by Goalie, 3590; Most Games Played by Goalie, 61, of which 31 were on the road; and Most Wins by Goalie, 32; all NAHL Individual Season Records. Lynn Zimmerman, holder of the NAHL League record of 13 assists in one season with Erie in 1975-76 and set an American Hockey League record for goaltenders with 3 assists in one game in 1972 while playing with the Rochester Americans, continued his offensive powerness with 12 assists during the current season.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR - TOM MILANI - SYRACUSE BLAZERS

Tom Milani, graduate of the University of Minnesota at Duluth, was selected as Rookie of the Year by vote of the NAHL Coaches. Milani, playing with the regular season Champions, Syracuse Blazers, posted 121 points in 72 games, with 56 goals and 65 assists. His goal scoring performance surpassed Hank Taylor's previous rookie goal scoring record of 50 set in 1975-76. Milani was also a first team All-Star selection at right wing. Milani's team mate and Rookie Award runner-up, Bernie Johnston, gave Syracuse a "one-two" punch of 243 regular season first year points, with both shattering Taylor's first year record of 93 points.

GOALTENDER OF THE YEAR - LYNN ZIMMERMAN - ERIE BLADES

Lynn Zimmerman, first team All-Star selection, earned the Award for "Goaltender of the Year" in the NAHL by posting an impressive 3.38 goal against average. This Award is earned by the goaltender with the lowest goal against average while playing in a minimum of 1800 minutes (30 games). Zimmerman's impressive record, interrupted by a brief call-up to the Houston Aeros at mid-season, includes the following: Most Minutes by Goalie, 3590; Most Games Played by Goalie, 61, of which 31 were on the road; and Most Wins by Goalie, 32; all NAHL Individual Season Records. Lynn Zimmerman, holder of the NAHL League record of 13 assists in one season with Erie in 1975-76 and set an American Hockey League record for goaltenders with 3 assists in one game in 1972 while playing with the Rochester Americans, continued his offensive powerness with 12 assists during the current season.
